NDS Custom Report Writer

BUSA, Northern Data Systems' custom Report Writer is an integral query tool within EDIFICE (NDS' utility billing software) that empowers you to create tailored reports for quick and efficient access to the information you need. Its flexible design and robust features allow you to pinpoint and extract the exact data that matters most to you, pulling from any EDIFICE information. Need to combine data from multiple tables? Pre-joined tables and tools for combining tables makes joining tables seamless.

With the ability to filter, sort, and organize report information, you can customize outputs to suit your specific needs. Additional capabilities include aggregate functions like count, sum, and average, alongside advanced features such as creating data substrings or linking fields together for more in-depth analysis.

Whether you need to view data on-screen, print detailed reports, or share findings, options are plentiful. Outputs can be printed, emailed, saved as PDFs, or exported directly to Microsoft Excel or Word for further use.
